While Articulate and Injunction would seem to have done best, this is not the case. Injunction was driven to the limit, while Hermis did his trial under double • wraps, Goldsmith was hard held and full of running. Waterboy was only galloping at the end of the trial, and Colonel Bill, Articulate, City Bank and Glenwater . fully satisfied their trainers that they are on edge for the great struggle

In order to have a jockey to ride his horse Hermis, E. R. Thomas to-day purchased the contract papers of Jockey Rice from L. V. Bell. The contract for Rice is for two years. It is said that Mr. Thomas paid $5,000 for the contract and that the rider will receive a salary of $10,000.

Africander seems to have the best of Irish Lad. The latter's trial was in a rain under 128 pounds and eminently satisfactory. The public cares little for the theory of scale, however, and Irish Lad will be backed loyally because of his game struggle against Gunfite in the Brooklyn.

ARTICULATE AND HENO. REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New York, June 17.-The twentieth renewal of the most-sought-after if not the richest stake in the American turf calendar. the Suburban Handicap, will be run at Sheepshead to-morrow. The field that will line up at the barrier will be one of the fastest that have been sent for this classic

A remarkable feature of this renewal will A remarkable feature of this renewal will be that it is particularly rich in high-class S-year-sids. One seldom sees two 3-year-olds of the ability of Irish Lad and Africander pitted against one another in this event, and then there is Injunction, who, if no; so good, is at least worthy of note. The final workouts for the Suburban have left no outstanding winner, as did Alcedo's sensational trial two seasons and, or the record-breaking performance of Gold Heels last year.

DAINGERFIELD IS ON EDGE.

The best trial of all the candidates was in several seasons

DAINGERFIELD IS ON EDGE.

The best trial of all the candidates was unquestionably that of Major Daingerfield, and it indicates that the son of Handspring will be the horse the winner will have to beat. Major Daingerfield's trial was not the fastest by any means, but he was never a work horse, being just a bit sluggish when going it alone. The Major galloped the Suburban course at Sheepshead yesterday early while the track was heavy and holding. He shouldered 125 pounds and in the presence of Andrew Miller, his half-owner, reseled off the mile and a quarter in 2:13. He was fighting for his head at the end, though the boy had to atouse him a bit at the six furlongs. The Major looked fit to the minute, as the superfluous flesh which he carried at Gravesend has entirely disappeared. His muscles are round, smooth and hard, the ribs are faintly outlined and his rich coat has the gloss of perfect health. The Major began his trial with a pacemaker, reaching the furlong in 12, quarter in 25½, three-eighths in 28, balf in 29½. About here the pacemaker died and Daingerfield went on alone, five-eighths in 1:31, mile in 1:35½ and mile and a quarter in 2:13 with the Major still full of running.

WATERBOY'S CHANCES BRIGHT.

and the mile and a quarter in 2:13 with the Major still full of running.

WATERBOY'S CHANCES BRIGHT.

The best work at Sheepshead yesterday from a time standpoint was that of Waterboy, the 4-year-old son of Watercress which will carry George Odom in the colors of James B. Haggin. Waterboy covered the Suburban course in 2:122. This trial, however, was negotiated after 5 o'clock in the afternoon, when the wind and afternoon sun had dried out the going considerably. Waterboy is a great big, strapping fellow, with race-horse written in every line. His flashy action, speed and great power make him decidedly a factor.

Mr. Whitney, who wishes the public to know all his stable secrets, has not seen fit to let them in on Goldsmith, and the true form of the Meddler colt will remain a mystery so far as the public is concerned until after the running of the big race. The ordy line the clockers have on Goldsmith's work is a mile turned under double wraps in 1:48½ on Monday. This proves, of course, that Goldsmith is not alling, as reported recently, but nothing more.

low, with race-horse written in every line. His flashy action, speed and great power make him decidedly a factor.

Mr. Whitney, who wishes the public to know all his stable secrets, has not seen fit to let them in on Goldsmith, and the true form of the Meddler colt will remain a mystery so far as the public is concerned until after the running of the big race. The only line the clockers have on Goldsmith's work is a mile turned under double wraps in 1855 on Monday. This proves, of course, that Goldsmith is not alling, as reported recently, but nothing more.

IRISH LAD'S GOOD WORKOUT.
Irish Lad is to go in the Suburban after all, in spite of the ten pounds penalty he incurred for winning the Brooklyn, which gives Africander a five-nound advantage over the Whitney colt. The withdrawing of Irish Lad from the Chicago Derby, in which H. P. Whitney announced some time ago his colt would possitively start, burned up a lot of public money, but, of course. Whitney can run his horse where he pleases.

FAVORITES WON WITH REGULARITY.

Starter Had a Bad Day With Flag, but Public Choices Got the Money Each Time.

WAGNER BEAT MAUD GONNE.

Outside of Field-The Wizard Won Another Very Lucky Race.

Although Mr. Dade had a very decidedly ark day with the starters, favorites wou with great consistency during the afternoon Quaker Cirl, backed from 5 to 3s, won the first race like a nice filly. She raced behind the pace to the stretch, then came through crongly and won easily, Peach Juice, a 100 to-I shot, would probably have won had the not run out at the stretch entry. He ran a ine race, and after running out to the fence was beaten only in the final ten yards.

Ludy Vashii, meely ridden by the former poor lockey, Bridw-II, won the second race he field, had to go around the bunch on the urn, then got to the front, but did not dis play his proper speed. He gave it up in the stretch, and Vashti breezed in. Smith can prove that this was not the horse's race by twenty pounds. Vashti won nicely and easby.

Wreath of Ivy won the fourth race luckly, Perla and Moulin Rouge displayed great peed. Moulin Rouge going particularly
ast. She stopped, though, after a quarter ad been run. Then Ivy, who got off luckly, came on and won by a nose. Mafadla, the had all the hard luck of the race, met with much interference in the stretch, and could have won in another stride.

WAGNER WINS IN A GALLOP.

WAGNER WINS IN A GALLOP. Louis Wagner won the third race in gallop, Maud Gonne, a miserable 4-to-5 shot, was second and A. D. Gibson third. shot, was second and A. D. Gibson thurd.
Gibson broke on the outside of the field, but in some mysterious manner the good jockey. Booker, managed to get him cut off-probably by the shadow of the inside horse-and pulled him up. It was funny.
Gibson ran a good race thereafter. Kindrel went well for three furlongs, then quit to nothing and finished last. Troxler gave him a beautiful beating for his sloth.

BAD START IN FIFTH RACE.

send or Sheepshead Bay, Articulate and Heno have worked. Articulate covered a mile and one-quarter in 2:14. His trial was not impressive, and, as he is slow to begin as a rule, his chances are almost sure to be ruined at the start. Heno worked in 2:12 and did it very handly. If the Suburban field were a six-horse field, he would have a grand chance, but he is another slow beginner and if the big field expected goes to the post, he need not be feared. Hunter Raine, Alex Shield's candidate, has been running bang-up races, and at the weights would give any horse in the race a hard tussel in a match, but a big field will also settle his chances. City Bank, John E. Madden's bottled-up good thing for the Suburban, will have to do much better than he showed in his trial in order to win. He covered the Suburban route in 2:142, and was distressed at the end. BAD START IN FIFTH RACE. Mr. Dude sort of broke it up in the fifth Everything was wrong and Eda Riley and Orris were as good as left at the post. Hilee outbroke the slow beginners and made lee outbroke the slow beginners and made the start look worse than it really was. Mr. Elliott's highorse then stepped on with a five lengths' lead of Father Wentker, ran him dizzy and won pulled up. Kenova ran a good race in third place.

The estath race went to The Wizard, a streak of luck helping him very much. Eliza Dillon and Kingstelle were closing fast at the three-eighths when Chickasha backed into the field, she stopped so short. This threw the contenders up in the air and The Wizard got away. F. Smith held Kingstelle out of the race too long. She is a mare who needs to be rated and have her speed conserved, but Smith held her back too long. The boy seems anxious to take D. Austin's place and is liable to share his fate of he rates them too well.

CARDWELLTON AND BURLAP. Annie Davis Looks Like a Sure Winner-Handlenp Is Hard Race. Cardwellton's last race was too good to be overlooked. It lies between him and Burlap for the first race to-day. Haddington is a fast horse, but can scarce concede the weight. Goudy will go well for a bit, and may stay to the third. Clinton B., at 15 to 1 to show, might stand a piking bet.

"Ah do't cah who Thunderation, or—and—is," said John Clarke yesterday, when asked about the second race. "That yeah filley ob Mistah Hayes done got it won now." So it seems, Anne Davis is said to be a better mare than Miss Crawford. What would Miss Crawford do here? J. W. O'Neill should be second and Hast Du Gesehen third. This race is not one on which betters should go broke.

Howling Dervish will go well in the third, but Oudenarde is a nice, tight horse, and should beat him. Deer Hunter will not be far off at the finish.

The handicap is awfully hard. Found will not like 197, and Taby Tosa can scarce give that weight away to Leenja, Kaffir will go well if they will just let him run and not try to rate him. Prince Richard likes the weight, and will go well. It seems to lie with the feather weights.

With a good rider up, Mistle is a good thing in the fifth race. Lady Idris will like the fast track, and, the weight off, Doctor Clark should be third.

Little Wilson may draw his whip on Sweet Dream and shoot it off in the last event. That is the only way she can lose.

SENSATIONAL FINISH IN THE DERBY TRIAL.

Savable, Linguist and Judge Himes Went Under the Wire Heads Apart.

LAST-NAMED RAN BEST RACE.

Horsemen Agree He Would Have Won Beyond Doubt Had the Distance Been Further -Cook's Colt Good.

Chicago, June 17.-The Derby Trial Speclaf at Harlem to-day furnished one of the most sensational finishes of the year. Sava-ble, Linguist and Judge Himes, in a fierce drive that commenced at the head of the stretch, came under the wire as named heads barely apart.

Savable, the American Perby favorite, held at 1 to 2 in the race to-day, snowed wenderful gameness at a time when he appeared beaten, but Gray, who had the mount, held Savable together and rode him out to victory.

Probably the most remarkable run by any of the seven starters was that of Judge Himes winner of the Kentucky and the trawtherne handleaps. Trailing along far back until reaching the stretch, he cosed with a half-railsing rush and would certainly have won had the distance been a mile and a quarter or the Derby route of a mile and a half, according to the belief of the majority of horsemen and trainers at the track. Bernays, highly touted for the Derby and second to Savable in the M. Lewis Clark Scakes, was never a factor in to-day's contest. out to victory.
Probably the most remarkable run by any Fearing injury from interference, Gray had instructions from Trainer Wishard to go to the front with Savable and keep him clear, Gray obeyed as well as he cound, but Savable was unable to outsprint Linguist until the half-mile pole. There he got in front, and at the final eighth pole looked a certain winner. Then Linguist and Judge Himes began to close in on the favorite, and not until the judges hung out the numbers could it be really certain how the three had finished.

The absentees from the race were Claude.

had finished.

The absentees from the race were Claude, Manra and Au Revoir, Savable was made favorite, with Bernays 2 second choice. Gregor K, and Linguist were equal third choices at $ to 1. Judge Himes opened at 10 to 1, and drifted to 30 to 1 at post time on reports of recent illness, Giffain and Maxey Blumenthal were each 20 to 1.
